Author Events

Meet the Author

Omar El Akkad

Wednesday, December 1, 7–8pm, Virtual

Join us for this year's Meet the Author program, where Omar El Akkad will be discussing his acclaimed novel, What Strange Paradise. Mr. El Akkad will be in conversation with Jack Doppelt, Hamad bin Khalifa Al Thani Emeritus Professor of Journalism at Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism.

What Strange Paradise is the story of two children finding their way through a hostile world. But it is also a story of empathy and indifference, of hope and despair, and about the way each of those things can blind us to reality.

Omar El Akkad is an author and a journalist. His writing has appeared in The Guardian, Le Monde, Guernica, GQ, and many other newspapers and magazines. His debut novel, American War, is an international bestseller, award winner, and has been translated into thirteen languages.

Explore Our New Website!

Earlier this fall, we debuted a new library website. A few of the new features you'll find on the site:

- Librarian-created booklists
- Easy search of the website and library catalog
- The ability to browse and filter online resources
- Specialized pages for kids, teens, makers, and teachers
- Blog posts from our librarians and staff members
- Curated resources from our business and genealogy librarians
- And much more!

We invite you to spend some time exploring our new site.

Welcome Back to Books Down Under!

Books Down Under (BDU), the used bookstore run by the Friends of the Library, has reopened to the public. Visit BDU, located on the library's lower level, to find used books for all ages and interests. Find current BDU hours on the library website.

Interested in joining the Friends? Visit our website to find information about supporting the friends, including membership and volunteer opportunities.
